

Townshend Village Hall

Townshend Newsletter September 2017

Lunch

Saturday 2nd September

Food from Noon

Main Course 3.50

Dessert £1.50

The vegetables are kindly donated by the excellent Berryman's Farm Shop.

If you have not been to lunch before and would like any more information or if you are able to help with our lunches in the future please call Sarah on 07842201950.

Christmas Lunch

This will be on 2nd December 2017.

We will be trying something new this year and will be introducing a booking system for places at the lunch. Look out for information on how to book in next month's newsletter.

Friends of Godolphin

presents on Monday 4th September

An Illustrated Talk by

Shaun Poland on 'Butterflies of Cornwall'

Talk starts at 7.30pm - Entry £4 on the door

(FOG members £3)

Forthcoming Events

October 2017

Lunch—Saturday
7th October

Film Club —Saturday
21st October

Friends of Godolphin
Film Night—Wednesday
4th October

Film Club

(for all members of C-Film)

This month the film is the American Biography Drama

'Hidden Figures'

Three brilliant African-American women at NASA—Katherine Johnson, Dorothy Vaughan and Mary Jackson serve as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in history; the launch of astronaut John Glen into orbit. A stunning achievement that restored the nation's confidence, turned around the Space Race and galvanised the world.

Saturday 16th September

Doors open at 7pm film starts at 7.30pm

Entrance £3 - You can join C-Film on the door for £5

Carn to Cove

presents on Saturday 23rd September

'Carmen & Mimi to the Rescue'

'Has Anyone Seen Our Divas?'

Theatrical entrepreneur Charlie Overall (Ben Oldfield, Cube Theatre) has booked world class opera divas Isabella Cappuccino and Svetlana Molotov for a gig. When they fail to turn up, Charlie is forced to provide the entertainment with his limited ukulele repertoire and reluctant assistance from his teenage daughter Roxie... until tea ladies Carmen & Mimi step into the breach and assume the mantle of the missing divas, with sublime results!

The music programme will include arias by Puccini, Mozart, Verdi, Bellini, Humperdinck, Offenback and Dvorak as well as songs from musical theatre including West Side Story, Cabaret and My Fair Lady and songs by Ivor Novello.

*Evening starts at 6.30pm, tickets £8 which includes a supper before the performance starts.
Tickets available from Les Hudson on 01736 850740.*

Please send any suggestions for inclusion in the newsletter to Rosemary Saunders ehsblue@aol.com / phone 850843 or look at our WEBSITE www.townshendvillagehall.org.uk